To feed his starving family, a young serf steals a chicken from his masters kitchen. Caught, his death sentence is commuted to servitude in the Jewish ghetto. The youth, Toms, trembles at the thought of being bound to a mortal enemy. Once settled among a moneylenders family, however, he discovers greater friendship and kindness than he has ever known. But can Toms protect his new friends from the injustices of his old world? Especially appropriate for 9- to 12-year-olds, this fable of tolerance vividly portrays Jewish ghetto life in sixteenth-century Prague. Twenty distinctive illustrations by famed artist Ben Shahn illuminate the text. This new edition reintroduces a moving tale one that has been out of print for 25 years to children and adults. Educators, Jewish study groups, and other educational organizations will find it an excellent addition to their reading lists; general readers will find it inspirational as well. A preface by Margot Stern Strom is included. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
