Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Principles of Insurance The literature on insurance is considerable in amount, but that which is accessible for use in schools and colleges is meager. Government documents, official reports of insurance companies and of organizations of insurance officials and employees, pamphlets and published addresses on the subject are the chief sources of the best information on insurance. It is therefore because of the conviction of the importance of insurance, the character of the literature, and the increasing importance of the subject in the curriculum of educational institutions that this discussion is offered. The two volumes on life and fire insurance are offered, not as a complete discussion of these two important forms of insurance, but rather as a statement of what is conceived to be the more important considerations which should receive study in a general course in life and fire insurance. The material has been selected on the basis of the authors experience in teaching the subject, his experience in the business, and his association with insurance organizations. As textbooks, they will need to be supplemented by the instructor, by reference reading as well as by the use of policy forms, company reports, government reports, and other available material.
