University of South Carolina Press. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 64 pages. Dimensions: 8.3in. x 5.5in. x 0.2in. In Ota Benga under My Mothers Roof, Carrie Allen McCray (1913-2008) uses poignant and personal verse to trace the ill-fated life of the Congolese pygmy who was famously exhibited in the Bronx Zoo in 1906 before being taken in by the McCray family of Lynchburg, Virginia. Rooted in the rich historical and autobiographic context of her own experiences with Benga, McCray offers compelling, dexterous poems that place Bengas story within the racial milieu of the early twentieth century as the burgeoning science of social anthropology worked to classify humans based on race and culture. The theme of this book is a study of humanity, of people of all kinds, in which Bengas vitality becomes the measure against which everyone is measured. With poems that revel in African American signifying, spirituality, and traditional storytelling, McCrays collection establishes a sincere legacy for Ota Benga as she shares her friends harrowing tale with new generations. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
