This is a complex novel that weaves elements of fact fiction, but at its core the author sums it this: Love s story of a nameless man, his appointed rhapsodist their charge to extend agape love to the entire biogeochemical realm that it may be saved. The story extends from the author s true clinical death experience. He said Birth death we all have in common in them is no choice. However, in my death I saw the imminent death of all life on earth as a choice that was being made by humankind. Ways to reverse this cycle were also revealed. He published this data on his websites but thought he wasn t reaching enough fast enough. So, he turned to his past as a writer to create a book intended to return drama to its past purpose as a positive motivator of human behavior. If humans weren t responding to science showing their continued consumption habits could equal their extinction, perhaps they d respond to a dramatization of their mass murder. Here s the story: The inconvenient truth is that there s an invisible enemy pushing earth into the 11th hour. But fear not, for fear is the weapon this enemy uses to hack into your consciousness, log onto your thoughts boot-up the suicide program that has earth cycling toward death. But a new kind of hero is being downloaded to delete the enemy abort the murder of humankind. Can one stranger save the world?...
