Syrians, Poles, and Lithuanians all show more than one-fourth of their number in the United States under five years and at least 55 per cent here under ten years. The table next presented classifies all foreign-born persons, including heads of households, according to the number of years since their first arrival in the United States. In this table male heads of households, who have been shown separately, are included. The table is based on General Table 10. Table 19.--Number and per cent of foreign-born persons in the United States under five years, five to nine years, etc., by race of individual. (By years in the United States is meant years since (1rst arrival in the United States. No deduction is made for time spent abroad. a Not computed, owing to small number Involved. Of the 4,343 persons included in this table 46 per cent have come to the United States within five years, 24.5 per cent have been in the country from five to nine years, 19.1 per cent have been here from ten to nineteen years, and 10.4 per cent have been here twenty years or over. A convenient comparison of the several races is afforded by the following cumulative percentages: Table 20.--Per cent of foreign-born persons in the United States under five years, under ten years,...
