The Fable of the Shower of Blows that Came Down on Paw TILLIE had been away for Three Months attending Madame Skagiak s School for teaching Young Ladies how to wither their Parents. She came home with a tan-colored Automobile and a good deal of Hat, looking as flip as a real Actress. The antique Hay-Maker who had been sending the Money greeted her with Open Arms. Gal, I m tarnation tickled to see you Hum again, he said. How be ye? Oh, Papa! she exclaimed, turning deathly Pale. You have no Collar or Cravat and you are addressing me while in your Shirt Sleeves. Your Hair is parted on the wrong side. Your Vest is three years to the way-back, and to look at the Bag in your Trousers one would think that you were getting ready to make a Jump. You...
