Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Report and Recommendations on Postal and Cable Communication: With Central and South America The report of the Committee on Communication upon the Gulf of Mexico and the Caribbean Sea presents a series of facts touching the existing means of transportation for submission to the early consideration of Congress. It shows that the Republic of Mexico and the Republics of Central America, although containing a population and wealth that are but a fraction of our own, and with public revenues that do not compare with those of the United States, are doing more than this Government to maintain a commerce that is of much greater importance and advantage to us than it is to them. They pay as subsidies to steam-ships carrying the United States flag the sum of $101,000 annually; while the Government of the United States paid the same vessels but $24,160 during the last fiscal year. The report states that while the present lines of steamers between the ports of the United States and the countries bordering on the Gulf of Mexico and...
